Attendance Collection System (TACS)

DATE: August 12, 2014

TO: All TACS Offices

This Maintenance Management Order (MMO) supplements MMO-077-08, Preventive Maintenance Guidelines and Maintenance Staffing Criteria for Time Attendance Collection System (TACS), dated August 13, 2008. This MMO removes obsolete information and updates applicable criteria in the original bulletin. This bulletin applies to Acronym TACS and Class Code AA.

The Employee Badge Reader (EBR) Upgrade project was a multi-year joint effort that began in 2007 and completed in June of 2012. With the completion of this effort, all existing legacy AT&T Data Collector 20 style EBRs and associated lower network communication infrastructure have been replaced by the new Ethernet enabled Linx Hyper Employee Badge Reader (HEBR). As a result, all information regarding the Legacy EBR and Network Categories is obsolete.

On-line changes to MMO-077-08 have been made to incorporate all actions resulting from this MMO. The following items have changed:

- Removal of Legacy EBR and network categories from Attachment 1
- Removal of Attachments 2 (EBR Daily) and Attachment 3 (EBR As Required)
- Updates to HEBR information in the remaining attachments
- Attachment 5 frequency of "As Required" during Corrective Maintenance changed to "Annual" frequency, and will become the new Attachment 3

This bulletin does not require a work order.
